Official Screening: Whose Streets?
October 19, 2017 - 7:00pm
Location: MUR 035

The activists and leaders who live and breathe this movement for justice bring you Whose Streets? -- a documentary about the Ferguson Uprising. As the National Guard descends on Ferguson, these young community members become the torchbearers of a new wave of resistance.
http://www.whosestreets.com/

Talk: LaVonya Bennett - Insidious Trauma
October 23, 2017 - 7:00pm
Location: JB 101

Title of talk: "Insidious Trauma: Exploring the Mental Health Implications for Experiences with Oppression"
LaVonya Bennett: Clinic Supervisor and Therapist, OU Counseling Psychology Clinic

Talk by J. W. Franklin
“Introducing the National Museum of African American History and Culture”
November 15, 2017 - 7:00pm
Location: Murray Hall Parlor

This talk is part of the Murray Hall Civil Rights Speaker Series. - https://nmaahc.si.edu/

Kiese Laymon
Reading from his new book “Heavy: An American Memoir”
November 27 - 7:00pm
Location 035 MUR

Author of the acclaimed novel, Long Division, and essay collection, How to Slowly Kill Yourself and Others in America, Laymon will read from his forthcoming memoir, Heavy. Laymon is a professor of English and African American Studies at University of Mississippi. - http://www.kieselaymon.com/

For additional information, email africanastudies@okstate.edu or call 405-744-7692 africana.okstate.edu